

Spanish Memories, African Hopes through Literature & Film

LITERATURE & ETHNIC STUDIES

2020 | Summer Session I

Courses:

TWS 21GS: African Literature: Islam and Immigration

LTWL 180GS: Reimagining the Spanish Civil War

Program Highlights:

- Study Granada and Andalusia as sites of the Spanish Civil War and its aftermath
- Visit the Alhambra, the famous Moorish fortress, where Muslim and Christian Spain left their mark, and Morocco
- Guest speakers from the University of Granada
- Recommended for students interested in history, literature, migration, and third world studies

About Global Seminars:

- 5 week summer programs led by a UCSD professor
- No language requirement
- Class sizes between 15-28 students
- Check website for "Meet the Professor" Info Session Dates

Contact Global Seminars:

globalseminar@ucsd.edu
(858)-534-1123

Professor Robert Cancel:

rcancel@ucsd.edu

Read our student-run blog:

ucsdgs.blogspot.com

   @ucsdgs

Early Bird Deadline: February 1, 2020
Application Deadline: March 1, 2020

(Program details subject to change)
globalseminar.ucsd.edu