

The Judaic Studies Program Presents

An International Symposium

Stories of Khmelnytskyi

Conflicting Legacies of a Cossack Uprising

All Panels will be held in Meeting Rooms on Fifteen (15B)

at the Village at Torrey Pines

Sunday and Monday

May 6-7

2012

To register, write to Maggie Tilley

mtilley@ucsd.edu

Please indicate the panels you would like to attend

For more information visit:

<http://judaicstudies.ucsd.edu/news>

Sunday, May 6, 2012

10:30 am - 1:15 pm

Session 1: The Aftermath of 1648

Chair: William Propp (UC, San Diego)

Adam Teller (Brown U)

Frank Sysyn (U of Alberta)

Ada Rapoport Albert (University College, London)

2:00 pm - 4:30 pm

Session 2: Khmelnytskyi and Romantic Traditions

Chair: Lisa Lampert-Weissig (UC, San Diego)

George Grabowicz (Harvard U)

Roman Koropeckyj (UC, Los Angeles)

Taras Koznarsky (U of Toronto)

Sponsored by

The UCSD Judaic Studies Program

The Jewish-Ukrainian Encounter Initiative

The UCSD Russian & Soviet Studies Program

The UCSD Literature Department

Monday, May 7, 2012

9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Session 3: Khmelnytskyi and the Reinvention of National Traditions

Chair: Robert Edelman (UC, San Diego)

Amelia Glaser (UC, San Diego)

Israel Bartal (Hebrew U)

Myroslav Shkandrij (U of Manitoba)

1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Session 4: Khmelnytskyi in Twentieth-Century Mythologies

Chair: Hasia Diner (New York U)

Genady Estraiikh (New York U)

Izabela Kalinowska (SUNY Stonybrook)

3:15 pm - 4:45 pm

Session 5: Stories of Khmelnytskyi: A Discussion of the Volume

Chair: Steven Cassedy (UC, San Diego)

Discussant: Judith Kornblatt (UW, Madison)